

Buffet Menu

We have compiled this menu to give you have as much choice as possible and allow you to tailor your food around your occasion, however, we understand that picking a buffet menu is difficult when you have lots of people to satisfy so our Sample Menu Section will give you a helping hand. All of our samples are there to help you but if you would like to change anything on them then feel free to speak to your Cramond Brig function contact and they will be happy to provide you with advice and assistance.

On the back page we have also given you a rough guide to our pricing if you would like to create your own buffet.
